Royal Engineers—Failure of Officers to qualify for Engineer pay.—An officer who fails to qualify for engineer pay under the provisions of Articles 378 and 378A, Pay Warrant, 1926, will not be permitted to remain in the Royal Engineers. He will either be offered transfer to another arm or be called upon to resign his commission, as may be decided. A.O. 57. 1929.

Apprentice Tradesmen.—1. A soldier enlisted for training as an apprentice tradesman who is found to be unsuitable, after attaining the age of 18 years, for further training in the trade for which he was enlisted, or who fails to pass the appropriate trade test after a reasonable period has elapsed, will be transferred to a semi-skilled or non-tradesman category according to the particular arm of the service for which he was enlisted or to which he has been posted. A.O. 58. 1929.

2. In the case of an ex-apprentice tradesman whose term of service is 12 years with the colours as from attaining the age of 18 years, action will be taken to vary such term of service under Army Council Instruction 88 of 1927, to correspond with the term of service appropriate to the class to which he is being transferred, subject to the soldier's consent to such variation in the terms of his engagement. In all other cases of transfer to a semi-skilled or non-tradesman class under this authority, the soldiers concerned will be retained for the existing period of their engagements.

3. In the event of a soldier, whose engagement is 12 years with the colours as from attaining the age of 18 years, declining to agree to the variation of his terms of service on transfer to a semi-skilled or non-tradesman class, a report will be forwarded to the War Office for consideration as to whether he should be retained on his existing engagement or discharged.

4. The provisions of this Army Order will only be used in very special circumstances, as the unsuitability of an apprentice tradesman should be determined in the early stages of his boy training and not after he has attained the age of 18 years, so that advantage may be taken of training him in some other capacity or of discharging him, if unsuitable, under Army Order 20 of 1927 (as amended by Army Order 204 of 1928).

The Small Arms School Corps.—1. The Small Arms School Corps provides the warrant officers and N.C.Os. of the instructional, military clerical and administrative staffs of the Small Arms School (Head- A.O. 59. 1929.

Army Orders.—March, 1929.

A.O. 59 quarters, Hythe Wing and Netheravon Wing), the 1929 warrant officers, Class II, weapon training instructors at continued. the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, and the warrant officers of the Small Arms and Machine Gun Experimental Establishment, Hythe.

2. The establishment of the Corps will be the totals laid down by ranks for the above personnel in the several establishments mentioned in paragraph 1 above in Peace Establishments, Part III. Postings will be made by the commandant, after consultation with the officers commanding the separate establishments, to meet the exigencies of the service, which may require that, on occasion, the ranks of the personnel actually serving at a particular establishment do not agree strictly with the establishment laid down in Peace Establishments, Part III. The total establishment of ranks laid down for the corps as a whole will, however, on no account be exceeded.

3. The Commandant, Small Arms School, Netheravon, will act as Officer i/c Records of the Corps.

4. Promotions will be made on a corps roster, except that company serjeant-majors (warrant officers, Class II) and serjeant instructors who joined the schools before 18th February, 1922, will remain on the two separate rolls for promotion purposes which then existed. In the event, however, of a vacancy occurring at either the Hythe or the Netheravon Wing of the Small Arms School, which a company serjeant-major instructor or a serjeant instructor on the combined roll would normally be promoted to fill, such promotion will not be made while there is a soldier of similar rank on the individual roll at either wing who is qualified and is senior to those on the combined roll. In this case, the soldier on the individual roll will automatically be placed at the head of the combined roll and promoted accordingly. Any serjeant instructor who joined on or after 18th February, 1922, will be placed on the corps roster.

5. Vacancies in the corps will be filled by the War Office from nominations made by the Commandant, Small Arms School, from his register of N.C.Os. who possess the requisite qualifications and who have been recommended for this employment by their commanding officers.

6. The period of probation and the conditions for transfer will be as laid down in paras. 292 et seq, King's Regulations, 1928.

7. Army Orders 63 and 314 of 1923 and 66 of 1925 are hereby cancelled.

Army Orders.—March, 1929.

On this the 21st anniversary of the formation of the Territorial Army, please convey my sincere congratulations to all ranks.

The Empire will never forget the inestimable services rendered by Territorial Troops throughout the Great War, more especially during those early and critical days before the New Armies were ready to take the field. The gallantry and self-sacrifice of the men who fought and fell will be an inspiration for all time.

I send my best wishes for the future of the Territorial Army.

2. In this connection it should be noted that in no case will a claim for the initiation or resumption of marriage allowance or for admission to the married quarters roll be recognized in respect of the adoption of a child. Thus, while a soldier on becoming a widower will continue to be eligible for marriage allowance in respect of a child adopted prior to his wife's death, and a widower already drawing marriage allowance in respect of a child will be eligible for an increased allowance on account of the adoption of a child after his wife's death, a single man or a widower without children will not become eligible for the married quarters roll or to commence or resume receipt of marriage allowance by reason of his adoption of a child. If, however, a soldier, after adopting a child, subsequently qualifies otherwise for marriage allowance, he will be eligible for marriage allowance in respect of the adopted child as from the date of such qualification.

Serial No.	Date of examination	Campaign	Remarks
1	December, 1929	Campaign of the British Army in France and Belgium from the beginning of hostilities to the end of the battle of the Marne (inclusive).	The general distribution and action of the French and German armies. The action of the British Expeditionary Force, the German armies immediately opposed to it and the French forces on its flanks.

A more detailed study of the campaign from General Maude's accession to command to 30th April, 1917. A general study of the period from May, 1917, to 11th November, 1918. OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that a reduction of 7 per cent. shall be applied to the aforesaid rates from 1st July, 1930, to 30th June, 1931, after which OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE will be made known.

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the aforesaid reduction shall be applied in accordance with the terms of Article 2 of Our said Warrant, dated 12th March, 1926, and in a similar manner to the reduction of 5½ per cent. ordered with effect from 1st July, 1924, by Our Warrants dated 27th June, 1924, and 28th February, 1925.*

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 20th day of December, 1929, in the 20th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

Army Council's instruction on the foregoing Warrant

1. The foregoing Warrant constitutes a temporary departure from the rule for determining the percentage reduction from the rates of officers' pay, half pay and retired pay which was laid down in Army Order 483 of 1925. The application of this rule would have resulted in a reduction of 8 per cent for three years from 1st July, 1930 in lieu of the reduction of 6 per cent. which has been in operation since 1st July, 1927, under Army Order 1 of 1927.

The effect of the Warrant is to apply, for a period of one year from 1st July, 1930, a reduction of 7 per cent. only on the rates laid down in the Pay Warrant in lieu of the 8 per cent. which would have been applicable under the normal rule.

2. The following tables show the new rates of pay and half pay corresponding to the rates laid down in the Pay Warrant, 1926 :—
